Dear Parent/carer

We have a child within school who has a severe allergy to egg. Therefore, we are asking all parents/carers to refrain from sending your child to school with whole egg products, such as; scotch eggs, hardboiled eggs and egg sandwiches for snack or packed lunch. Should your child have any of these in their lunch box we will remove the product and send it home with them at the end of the day.

We are also asking that you please be conscious of what other items you send your child to school with and if they contain egg, such as: cakes, some cereal bars, mayonnaise. We understand that this may not always be possible as egg is in a whole host of foods, however due to the severity of the allergy we are asking that where possible your child's lunchbox and snack do not contain egg.

Thank you for your understanding.

Yours sincerely

Claire Murray
