News from Mrs Murray

What an exhilarating couple of weeks we've experienced as we approach Christmas! We've reached the conclusion of another wonderful term at Barlestone, filled with exciting learning and delightful holiday festivities!

- The children participated in the Santa Fun Run for Rainbows charity, which was a blast.
- Our Crazy Christmas Craft Day allowed the children to create a Christmas Hat, a Christmas Card, and a Decoration, all while having fun.
- Our younger students showcased their hard work in their Nativities, and their efforts truly shone during their performances.
- The older students participated in the Christmas Carol service at Church, a beloved annual event.

We even took the entire school to the Snow White Panto at Loughborough Town Hall, where the children's behaviour was exemplary!
